Prevent and Report Elder Abuse

by Diane Kaljian, Division Director

Nearly 200,000 Californians are victims of elder abuse every year. Over 1,800 Sonoma County residents reported abuse or neglect this year. Fewer than 20% of all incidents are ever reported.

MAY is
"Elder Abuse Prevention"
Month

Victims are often isolated and unwilling to get help. Some feel their request for help will go unanswered. Others fear retaliation from their abusers. Many remain silent to protect abusive family members from the legal consequences. Some are too embarrassed to admit that they have fallen victim to predators. And, others fear no one will believe them.

The growing number of elderly people requiring in-home care has exposed more families to the stresses that can result in abuse and neglect when support is not available. It is important to remember that abuse can exist in any situation where a person is dependent on someone else for care. People of any age who are ill or disabled may be at risk of abuse by a caregiver, family member, friend or neighbor.

All caregivers are mandated reporters. If anyone suspects abuse, call a Sonoma County social worker at Adult Protective Services (APS) 24-hour line (707) 565-5940 or (800) 667-0404. Or, you may call local law enforcement. All APS calls are confidential.

Types of Abuse

- 1. Neglect (self-neglect) - failure to provide basic needs such as food, water, personal care, shelter and/or medical care
- 2. Psychological - verbal threats or harassment, isolation, intimidation
- 3. Financial - theft or misuse of money, credit cards, or property; fraud; phone/mail scams; forced signature of documents
- 4. Physical - infliction of pain or injury
- 5. Sexual - unwanted sexual advances, including assaultive behavior through force or fear
- 6. Abandonment - desertion by the person who has assumed responsibility for providing care

Registry Update

by John Chan, Registry Supervisor

Building Working Relationships through Mutual Respect

The Public Authority's Caregiver Registry has lots of experience dealing with difficulties that arise in the working relationship between IHSS consumers and caregivers. Reflecting on these experiences, it is clear that one of the main aspects to maintaining a positive and successful working relationship is mutual respect. Below are some suggestions to help foster mutual respect.

- Communicate respectfully. Use words that are caring, courteous, grateful, helpful, kindhearted, polite, and supportive. Avoid using words that are belittling, degrading, demanding, demeaning, humiliating, insulting, or overpowering.
- Honor boundaries. Don't ask or share personal information that is unrelated to the job. Avoid giving advice or having discussions related to life-style issues, religion, politics, race, gender, or other sensitive topics. Don't buy or borrow items from each other.
- Respect each other's time. Consumers should keep a regular schedule with their caregiver and not ask them to work beyond the agreed-upon time. Caregivers should show up for interviews and work assignments at the mutually agreed-upon times.
- Be responsible about work tasks. Consumers should not ask the caregiver to do tasks that are not part of their IHSS authorized hours. Caregivers should willingly complete the agreed-upon tasks in a thorough, reliable, and timely manner.

Can You Cope if an Emergency Strikes?

If the rivers rise, earth quakes or heat persists, are you ready to take care of yourself? Plan for the unexpected by organizing yourself and your family so you can be self-sufficient for at least 2 -3 days in the event of a disaster.

1. Keep YOURSELF and YOUR family safe.
2. Plan for the unexpected in your home.
 - A) Prepare a "Home Emergency Kit" and "Go Kit". Store supplies in sturdy but easy-to-use containers.
 - B) What is YOUR evacuation plan? It's up to YOU to plan for YOUR safety.
 - If you require personal assistance, you need to make a thorough plan of how you are going to get the care you need to stay safe.
 - What routes can you take if the main roads are closed?
 - C) Who is in your emergency support team?
 - Organize and write down the names and phone numbers of your emergency support team.
 - Contact your emergency support team to let them know you rely on them in an emergency.
 - D) List the names and phone numbers of family/friends (local & out of town) to inform that you are safe following an emergency or in the event a relative/friend needs to be contacted.
3. Plan for the unexpected in your car.
